PART 5 - DISCLOSURE POLICY

This Disclosure Policy supports M1M's Corporate Values Statement and operates in conjunction with the law and M1M's policies which foster a culture of transparency and awareness.

1. Purpose and application of this policy

- 1.1 Under continuous disclosure laws, M1M must immediately notify the Australian Securities Exchange (ASX) of materially price sensitive information (unless an exception applies). ASX requires that the share market is kept continuously informed of such information.
- 1.2 Failure to notify ASX can be a serious criminal offence, exposing M1M, its managers and directors to imprisonment, fines and damages.
- 1.3 For the purposes of this policy, "M1M Person" has the meaning given to it in M1M's Securities Trading Policy.

2. Continuous disclosure principle

- 2.1 ASX Listing Rule (LR) 3.1 requires M1M to immediately notify ASX if it has, or becomes aware of, any information concerning M1M that a reasonable person would expect to have a material effect on the price or value of M1M's securities were that information to be generally available. This is known as the continuous disclosure obligation. M1M is also required by section 674 of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) (Corporations Act) to comply with this obligation. In this context, ASX has confirmed in Guidance Note 8 that "immediately" means "promptly and without delay".
- 2.2 LR 15.7 requires that M1M must not release information that is for release to the market to any person until it has given the information to ASX and has received acknowledgment that ASX has released the information to the market.
- 2.3 The continuous disclosure obligation does not apply if the exception to the obligation outlined in section 3 of this policy applies.
- 2.4 Any material price sensitive information must be disclosed to ASX in accordance with this policy. All disclosures must be accurate, balanced and expressed in a clear and objective manner that allows investors to assess the impact of the information when making investment decisions.
- 2.5 This policy is available in the "Corporate Governance" section of M1M's website.

3. Exception to the continuous disclosure principle

- 3.1 Availability of the exception
  - (a) Disclosure under LR 3.1 is not required if each of the following is satisfied in relation to the information:
    - (i) the information is confidential and ASX has not formed the view that the information has ceased to be confidential; and
    - (ii) one or more of the following applies:

- (A) it would be a breach of a law to disclose the information;
  - (B) the information concerns an incomplete proposal or negotiation;
  - (C) the information comprises matters of supposition or is insufficiently definite to warrant disclosure;
  - (D) the information is generated for the internal management purposes of M1M; or
  - (E) the information is a trade secret; and
- (iii) a reasonable person would not expect the information to be disclosed
- (b) All three elements set out above must be satisfied before the exception to the continuous disclosure obligation applies. Should any of these elements no longer be satisfied, M1M must immediately disclose the information to ASX in accordance with this policy.

3.2 A false market may cause the exception to be lost

LR 3.1B provides that if ASX considers that there is, or is likely to be, a false market in M1M's securities, and requests information from M1M to correct or prevent the false market, M1M must give ASX the information needed to correct or prevent the false market.

4. Disclosure

- 4.1 The Managing Director/CEO and the Company Secretary are responsible for implementing the Disclosure Policy.
- 4.2 M1M's Company Secretary who, for administrative convenience only, is primarily responsible for overseeing and coordinating all communication with ASX, investors, analysts, brokers, the media and the public, has the role of Disclosure Officer.
- 4.3 The Managing Director/CEO's and the Company Secretary's responsibilities include:
- (a) determining what information will be disclosed by M1M to ASX;
  - (b) implementing procedures to ensure that, if required:
    - (i) disclosures to ASX can be made immediately; and
    - (ii) trading halt requests can be lodged with ASX immediately;
  - (c) preparing (or overseeing the preparation of) external announcements (other than categories of routine announcements that the Managing Director/CEO determines may be prepared and released without prior review, if any);

- (d) verifying the integrity of “periodic corporate reports”<sup>1</sup> released to the market that are not otherwise audited or audit reviewed, and ensuring a description of the process undertaken to verify the integrity of the report is included in each report, or in the annual report, or published on M1M’s website;
  - (e) reviewing and approving proposed external announcements for release to ASX, or, if clause 4.5 applies, referring to the Board for approval; and
  - (f) providing the Board with copies of all material market announcements promptly after they have been made.
- 4.4 The Managing Director/CEO and the Company Secretary must consult with the Board, other senior management and external advisers as considered necessary, including where there is doubt as to whether certain information should be disclosed.
- 4.5 If the Managing Director/CEO or the Company Secretary considers that an announcement is of such a nature that it ought to be reviewed and approved by the Board or the Board has directed that the nature of such an announcement requires Board approval, then the Disclosure Officer must:
- (a) take all steps necessary to convene a Board meeting as soon as practicable to consider and approve the announcement; and
  - (b) take such other steps as the Managing Director/CEO or the Company Secretary determines are necessary to comply with M1M’s continuous disclosure obligations, including, if necessary, liaising with ASX to request a trading halt or suspension from trading until the Board is able to meet.
- 4.6 All ASX releases that are drafted by the Company are reviewed by the Managing Director/CEO and Company Secretary, and all material or price sensitive releases are circulated to the Board for approval. Following review and approval by all directors (where material or price sensitive), the Company Secretary lodges the release with the ASX and circulates a final version to Directors.
- 4.7 Where a continuous disclosure obligation arises, disclosure should not be delayed to accommodate the availability of the Managing Director/CEO or the Company Secretary or, if applicable, the Board. If either the Managing Director/CEO or the Company Secretary (or, in the case of announcements to be approved by the Board, the Board) is unavailable to make a disclosure decision, the Disclosure Officer must take such other steps as he or she determines is necessary to comply with M1M’s continuous disclosure obligations, including, if necessary, liaising with ASX to request a trading halt or suspension from trading until the Managing Director/CEO and the Company Secretary or the Board is able to meet.

5. Reporting obligation and safeguarding confidentiality

- 5.1 The Disclosure Officer is responsible for ensuring that all Board decisions that must be disclosed to ASX are dealt with by an appropriate company announcement and

<sup>1</sup> “Periodic corporate reports” are defined in the Corporate Governance Principle and Recommendation (4th edition) as the annual directors’ report, annual and half yearly financial statements, quarterly activity report, quarterly cash flow report, integrated report sustainability report or similar period report prepared for the benefit of investors.

that any routine announcement is also accurate, balanced and expressed in a clear and objective manner.

5.2 All M1M Persons are required to ensure the Managing Director/CEO or the Company Secretary is immediately advised of any information that they believe may be price sensitive or any issues which could develop into price sensitive information. If a M1M Person has doubt as to whether information concerning M1M is price sensitive, the M1M Person must ensure that information is reported to the Managing Director/CEO or the Company Secretary. He or she must not disclose that information to anyone outside M1M before ASX is notified.

5.3 If any M1M Person becomes aware that:

(a) there may have been inadvertent disclosure of material price sensitive information (which has not yet been disclosed to ASX) during any communication with external parties; or

(b) confidential M1M information may have been leaked (whatever its source), he or she should ensure the Managing Director/CEO or the Company Secretary is immediately notified. The Managing Director/CEO and the Company Secretary will determine the appropriate next steps.

6. Disclosure

6.1 If the Managing Director/CEO and the Company Secretary or Board (as applicable) approves the disclosure of information, the Disclosure Officer must immediately lodge that information with ASX in the manner prescribed by ASX Listing Rules.

6.2 M1M must not release information that is for release to the market to any person until it has given the information to ASX and has received acknowledgment that ASX has released the information to the market.

6.3 This policy and all information disclosed to ASX in compliance with this policy will be promptly posted on M1M's website following receipt of such an acknowledgement from ASX and verification by the Disclosure Officer.

7. Trading halts

7.1 In exceptional circumstances, it may be necessary for M1M to request a trading halt to maintain fair, orderly and informed trading in M1M's securities and to manage disclosure issues (for example, if confidential price sensitive information is prematurely or inadvertently disclosed and an immediate release cannot be made).

7.2 Subject to the Board's direction, the Managing Director/CEO is responsible for all decisions in relation to trading halts. Unless otherwise provided in section 4.5 above, only the Disclosure Officer is authorised to request a trading halt and only in accordance with a decision by the Managing Director/CEO or Board (as applicable).

8. False markets

8.1 In the event that the Board, the Managing Director/CEO or the Company Secretary is aware that M1M is relying on an exception to its continuous disclosure obligations, they must notify each other and the Managing Director/CEO must request the Disclosure Officer (or such other person as the Managing Director/CEO thinks fit) to monitor:

- (a) the market price of M1M's securities;
- (b) major national and local newspapers;
- (c) if M1M (or any advisors of M1M working on the particular transaction) has access to them, major news wire services;
- (d) any investor blogs, chat-sites or other social media that M1M is aware of that regularly post comments about M1M; and
- (e) enquiries from analysts or journalists,
- (f) for signs that the information to be covered in a potential announcement may have leaked and, if it detects any such signs, to initiate discussions with ASX as soon as practicable.

8.2 M1M's general policy is to respond to market rumours or speculation by stating that "M1M does not respond to market rumours or speculation". However, if M1M receives a request from ASX for information to correct or prevent a false market, the Disclosure Officer must (in consultation with the Managing Director/CEO and external advisers, if necessary) immediately provide that information to ASX.

9. Briefing investors, analyst and the media

9.1 M1M Persons must ensure that they do not communicate material that a reasonable person would expect would have a material effect on M1M's securities to an external party except where that information has previously been released publicly through ASX.

9.2 Ahead of any new and substantive investor or analyst presentation, a copy of the presentation materials must be released to ASX (even if the information in the presentation would not otherwise require market disclosure).

9.3 If any M1M Person participating in a briefing considers that a matter has been raised that might constitute a previously undisclosed material price or value sensitive matter, they must immediately refer the matter to a member of the Managing Director/CEO or the Company Secretary.

9.4 The only M1M Persons authorised to speak on behalf of M1M to investors, potential investors, analysts or the media are:

- (a) the chair of the Board;
- (b) the Managing Director/CEO; or
- (c) such other M1M Persons approved by the chair of the Board or the Managing Director/CEO.

9.5 Authorised spokespersons should clarify information that M1M has released publicly through ASX but must not comment on material price or value sensitive issues that have not been disclosed to the market generally.

9.6 If a question is asked in a briefing which can only be answered by disclosing material price sensitive information which has not been publicly released, the relevant M1M Person must decline to answer the question or take the question on notice.

9.7 During the time:

- (a) between the end of M1M's financial reporting periods (30 June and 31 December) and the announcement to ASX of the financial results for those periods; and
- (b) the period from the close of trading on ASX at the end of each calendar quarter (being the end of March, June, September and December) or if that date is not a trading day, the last trading day before that day, until close of trading on the day following the announcement of M1M's quarterly report to ASX, further restrictions are imposed to help ensure that M1M does not inadvertently disclose price sensitive information.

9.8 Generally, M1M may respond to requests for background information but will not hold meetings or briefings with individual or institutional investors, analysts or media representatives in relation to financial information, unless the Managing Director/CEO decides that it is appropriate for M1M to do so and the meeting or briefing will be the subject of a specific announcement to the market through ASX. Only the Managing Director/CEO may respond to questions from the financial community during blackout periods.

9.9 All briefing and presentation materials which contain previously undisclosed information will be disclosed to the market through ASX and placed on M1M's website.

10. Earnings expectations and forecast

10.1 Comments on expected earnings are confined to M1M's annual and half year financial reports and quarterly reporting and forecasts in a bidder's statement, target's statement or prospectus. Any material change in a disclosed earnings expectation must be immediately announced to ASX before being communicated to anyone outside M1M.

10.2 The Managing Director/CEO is responsible for monitoring analyst reports and consensus broker forecasts for M1M to determine whether to raise with the Board whether an announcement to ASX may be necessary to correct factual inaccuracies or historical matters. If the Managing Director/CEO becomes aware of any such inaccuracies or a material divergence between an analyst's or consensus forecast and M1M's own forecasts or earnings expectations, he or she shall liaise with the Company Secretary and the Board (if necessary) so that the necessity for an announcement to ASX and/or trading halt can be considered.

10.3 Any correction of factual inaccuracies by M1M does not imply an endorsement of the content of the report or forecast.

11. Breach of policy

M1M regards its continuous disclosure obligations as very important. Breach of this policy may lead to disciplinary action being taken against the employee, including dismissal in serious cases.

12. Review and changes to this policy

- 12.1 The Managing Director/CEO and the Company Secretary will review this policy annually or as often as considered necessary to check it is operating effectively and consider whether changes are required.
- 12.2 The Board may change this policy (including the responsibilities of the Managing Director/CEO and the Company Secretary) from time to time by resolution.

7. Review and changes to this policy

PART 7 – SECURITY TRADING POLICY

This Securities Trading Policy has been adopted by M1M in order to comply with ASX Listing Rule 12.9.

1. Purpose and application of this policy

- 1.1 The Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) (Corporations Act) prohibits the trading in shares, options, debentures (including convertible notes) and other securities (securities) of a company by any person who is in possession of price sensitive information regarding that company that is not generally available. The Corporations Act:
- (a) imposes substantial penalties on persons who breach those provisions; and
  - (b) applies to the extent of any inconsistency between it and this policy.
- 1.2 For the purposes of this policy:
- (a) “M1M Person” means all directors and senior management including each director of M1M, the Managing Director/CEO and Company Secretary of M1M, Key Management Personnel (as defined in the Corporations Act), all employees of M1M and any other person designated as a M1M Person by the board of directors (Board) in writing; and
  - (b) also includes:
    - (i) a company or trust controlled by any of the persons referred to in clause 1.2(a) above; and
    - (ii) for the purposes of clause 3 only, a spouse (including a de facto spouse), child (including a step-child or adopted child), a close relative, a person financially dependent on or acting in concert with any of the persons referred to in clause 1.2(a) above.
- 1.3 This policy regulates dealings by directors and certain officers of M1M and other designated persons, in securities in M1M or any other entity about which they acquire Inside Information through their position or dealings with M1M.
- 1.4 The purpose of this policy is not only to minimise the risk of insider trading, but also to avoid the appearance of insider trading and the significant reputational damage associated with the perception of insider trading.
- 1.5 This policy is not designed to prohibit M1M Persons from investing in M1M securities but does recognise that there may be times when directors, officers or certain employees cannot or should not invest in M1M securities.

2. Insider trading

- 2.1 General prohibition on Insider Trading
- (a) No M1M Person may, while in possession of Inside Information (defined in clause 2.2) concerning M1M, in breach of the Corporations Act:
    - (i) buy, sell or deal in any M1M securities at any time;

- (ii) procure another person to deal in M1M's securities in any way; or
  - (iii) pass on any Inside Information to another person for that person's own personal gain by dealing in M1M securities in any way (Insider Trading).
- (b) All M1M Persons are prohibited from dealing in the securities of outside companies about which they acquire Inside Information through their position with M1M.
- (c) The requirements imposed by this policy are in addition to any legal prohibitions on Insider Trading. Trading in M1M's securities is prohibited at any time by a director or an M1M Person if that person possesses Inside Information, even where the trade occurs outside a Blackout Period; or the trade falls within an exclusion in this policy; or clearance has been given under this policy to trade (whether in exceptional circumstances or otherwise).

2.2 Inside Information

- (a) A M1M Person is responsible for assessing whether they possess "Inside Information". This occurs where:
- (i) the person possesses information that is not generally available to the public and, if the information were generally available, a reasonable person would expect it to have a material effect on the price or value of M1M securities (or a decision whether or not to trade in them); and
  - (ii) the person knows, or ought reasonably to know, that the information is not generally available and, if it were generally available, a reasonable person would expect it to have a material effect on the price or value of M1M securities.

2.3 A reasonable person would be taken to expect information to have a material effect on the price or value of securities if the information would, or would be likely to, influence a person who commonly invests in securities to either deal or not deal in securities in any way. Inside Information in relation to the securities of outside companies has the same meaning for the purposes of this policy, except that references to "M1M securities" should be read as references to the securities of the outside company.

3. Restrictions on trading Blackout Periods

3.1 Blackout Periods

In addition to general restrictions outlined in clause 2, M1M Persons, subject to clause 3.3, may not buy or sell M1M securities during a Blackout Period (defined below).

- (a) Blackout Periods are times when M1M Persons must not deal in M1M's securities.
- (b) The following are mandated Blackout Periods:

- (i) from the close of the ASX trading day on 31 December each year, until 10:00am (Sydney time) on the ASX trading day following the day on which M1M's half-yearly results are released to the ASX;
  - (ii) from the close of the ASX trading day on 30 June each year, until 10:00am (Sydney time) of the ASX trading day following the day on which M1M's full year results are released to the ASX;
  - (iii) from the close of trading on ASX at the end of each calendar quarter (being the end of March, June, September and December), until close of trading on the day following the announcement of M1M's quarterly reports to ASX; and
  - (iv) any other period that the Board specifies from time to time.
- (c) If 30 June, 31 December and the last day of March, June, September and December are not ASX trading days, then the Blackout Period begins on the preceding ASX trading day.
- (d) During Blackout Periods M1M Persons must not deal in any of M1M's financial products or securities, or in any securities related to them.

3.2 Ad-hoc restrictions

M1M may impose, without notice and in its sole and absolute discretion, additional restrictions on trading in M1M's securities by any or all M1M Persons, and also by any other staff member(s) (who are not otherwise designated as "M1M Persons") as M1M considers appropriate. For the avoidance of doubt, M1M may impose ad-hoc restrictions under this clause 3.2 even where the proposed trade would otherwise take place outside a Blackout Period provided for in this policy. Any restriction communicated by M1M to any or all M1M Persons (or other staff members) under this clause 3.2 must be kept strictly confidential.

3.3 Notifications

- (a) M1M Persons must:
- (i) prior to dealing in M1M securities outside a Blackout Period or where clause 4 requires the person to obtain a consent under clause 3.3, notify the relevant person in clause 3.3(c) (the Authorising Officer) of their proposed dealing and obtain consent from the Authorising Officer;
  - (ii) confirm that they are not in possession of any Inside Information;
  - (iii) after dealing with the M1M securities, provide the Authorising Officer with a transaction confirmation; and
  - (iv) notify the Authorising Officer if they begin to have, or cease to have, a "substantial holding" (as defined in section 9 of the Corporations Act) in M1M, or if they have a substantial holding in M1M and there is a movement of at least 1% in their holding.
- (b) For the avoidance of doubt, the M1M Person seeking authorisation cannot be their own Authorising Officer.

(c) Authorising Officer

M1M person seeking authorisation	Authorising Officer
Chair of the Board	The Managing Director/CEO
Other directors, Company Secretary and any other Key Management Personnel	The Chair of the Board
Any other M1M Person	Other directors, Company Secretary and any other Key Management Personnel

3.4 Exceptional circumstances

- (a) In exceptional circumstances the Authorising Officer has discretion to approve dealings in M1M securities during a Blackout Period, or other dealings that would otherwise be prohibited by this policy.
- (b) Any approval given under this clause 3.4, must be provided by electronic delivery via email. The notification requirements still apply.
- (c) What constitutes “exceptional circumstances” will be assessed on a case-by-case basis within the absolute discretion of the Authorising Officer, and may include, without limitation, severe financial hardship or a requirement to comply with a court order or court enforceable undertaking.
- (d) Any decision to grant or refuse to grant clearance to a M1M Person to trade in M1M’s securities by the Authorising Officer under this clause 3.4:
  - (i) may be made in the Authorising Officer’s absolute discretion, without giving any reasons;
  - (ii) can be withdrawn (if clearance has been given) if new information comes to light or there is a change in circumstances;
  - (iii) is final and binding on the M1M Person seeking clearance; and
  - (iv) must be kept strictly confidential by the M1M Person and not disclosed to any other person.
- (e) In deciding whether to grant clearance to trade in M1M’s securities, the Authorising Officer will consider the need to minimise the risk of Insider Trading, and also to avoid the appearance of Insider Trading and the significant reputational damage that may cause.
- (f) Any clearance to trade by the Authorising Officer under this clause 3.4 is not an endorsement to trade. The M1M Person doing the trading is individually responsible for their investment decisions and their compliance with insider trading laws. The M1M Person must carefully consider whether they are in possession of any Inside Information that might preclude them from trading at that time. If the M1M Person is in any doubt, they should not trade.
- (g) If an M1M Person comes into possession of Inside Information after receiving a clearance to trade, they must not trade despite having received the clearance.

3.5 Company secretary to maintain records

Company Secretary will maintain a copy of:

- (a) all requests for an approval to deal in M1M's securities submitted by an M1M Person; and
  - (b) details of all dealings in M1M's securities made by a M1M Person.

4. Other restrictions

4.1 No speculative trading

Under no circumstances should M1M Persons engage in short-term or speculative trading in M1M securities. This prohibition includes short term direct dealing in M1M securities as well as transactions in the derivative markets, involving exchange traded options, share warrants, contracts for difference, and other similar instruments, which are short term or speculative.

4.2 No protection arrangements

- (a) The entering into of all types of "protection arrangements" for any M1M securities (or M1M products in the derivatives markets):
  - (i) is prohibited at any time in respect of any M1M securities which are unvested or subject to a holding lock; and
  - (ii) otherwise, requires consent under clause 3.3.
- (b) For the avoidance of doubt and without limiting the generality of this policy, entering into protection arrangements includes entering into transactions which:

4.3 For the avoidance of doubt and without limiting the generality of this policy, entering into protection arrangements includes entering into transactions which: Provisions of security over M1M's securities or entering into margin lending arrangements

- (a) M1M Persons may not at any time, directly or indirectly, grant any form of security (whether by way of charge, mortgage, pledge or otherwise) over any M1M securities which are unvested or subject to a holding lock, to secure any obligation of that M1M Person or any third party or enter into any margin lending arrangements involving M1M securities.
- (b) Unless clause 4.3(a) applies, M1M Persons may, directly or indirectly, grant security (whether by charge, mortgage, pledge or otherwise) over any of M1M's securities, to secure any obligation of that M1M Person or any third party or enter into any margin lending arrangements involving M1M securities, with consent provided under clause 3.3.

4.4 Trading in outside companies

M1M Persons must not trade in the securities or financial products of outside companies where they are in possession of Inside Information of that outside company.

5. Exemptions

5.1 M1M Persons may at any time:

- (a) trade in M1M's securities where the trading does not result in a change of beneficial interest in the securities;
- (b) acquire securities under any director or employee security plan or through the exercise of options or performance rights under an option or performance rights plan or acquire, or agree to acquire, options or performance rights under an option or performance rights plan. However, any dealing in those securities remains subject to this policy and the provisions of the Corporations Act;

- (h) a disposal of M1M securities that is the result of a secured lender exercising their rights under a loan or security agreement;
- (i) where a restricted person is a trustee, trade in the securities managed by that trust provided the restricted person is not a beneficiary of the trust and any decision to trade during a prohibited period is taken by the other trustees or by the investment managers independently of the restricted person; and
- (j) trade under an offer or invitation made to all or most of the security holders, such as, a rights issue, a security purchase plan, a dividend or distribution reinvestment plan or an equal access buy-back, where the plan that determines the timing and structure of the offer has been approved by the Board. This includes deciding whether or not to take up the entitlements and the sale of entitlements required to provide for the take up of the balance of entitlements under a renounceable pro rata issue.

5.2 If an M1M Person undertakes any of the actions described in clause 5.1, that M1M Person must advise the relevant Authorising Officer (as set out in clause 3.3(c)).

6. ASX notifications

6.1 M1M must notify ASX within 5 business days after any change to a director's relevant interest in M1M's securities or a related body corporate of M1M, including whether the change occurred inside a Blackout Period and, if so, whether prior written clearance was provided.

- 6.2 To enable M1M to comply with the obligation set out in clause 6.1, a director must immediately (and no later than 3 business days after any relevant event) notify Company Secretary in writing of the requisite information for Company Secretary to make the necessary notifications to the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) and ASX as required under the Corporations Act and ASX Listing Rules.

- 1.3 For the purpose of this policy, diversity extends beyond gender and includes, but is not limited to, marital or family status, sexual orientation, gender identity, age, disabilities, religious belief, cultural background, socio-economic background, perspective and experience.
- 1.4 This policy applies to all officers, employees and all people who work at M1M, including contractors and consultants.

- (h) monitor and measure the achievement of all diversity objectives set by the Board;
- (i) consider whether key performance indicators for senior management might be an appropriate way of furthering gender diversity objectives; and
- (j) ensure the Board sets and reviews measurable objectives in relation to gender diversity in the composition of its Board, senior management and workforce generally (Objectives) on an annual basis to identify ways in which the achievement of gender diversity at M1M is measured, and in relation to other aspects of this Diversity Policy.

3. Responsibilities

- 3.1 The Board has formally adopted this policy, reflecting a commitment by the Board for accountability across M1M to achieve its diversity goals.
- 3.2 The Board has responsibility for this policy, including its regular review and the monitoring of its effectiveness.
- 3.3 The Board has responsibility for:
  - (a) the Diversity Policy on M1M's website;
  - (b) the Objectives and M1M's progress in achieving the Objectives in M1M's annual report; and
  - (c) the respective proportions of men and women on the Board, in senior executive positions and across the whole organisation (including how the entity has defined "senior executive" for these purposes) for the entity's Gender Equality Indicators, as defined in the Workplace Gender Equality Act 2012 (Cth).

- 5.1 The Committee will review this policy annually or as often as it considers necessary to check it is operating effectively and consider whether changes are required.
- 5.2 The Board may change this policy from time to time by resolution.

PART 9 - ANTI – BRIBERY AND CORRUPTION POLICY

This Anti-Bribery and Corruption Policy (ABC Policy) supports M1M's Corporate Values Statement and its commitment to conducting business activities in an ethical, lawful and socially responsible manner, and in accordance with the laws and regulations of all the countries in which each operates.

This is first and foremost consistent with M1M's values. It is also a business and legal imperative. The reputation of M1M and its subsidiaries (collectively, M1M) as an ethical business organisation is important to its ongoing success. Engaging in bribery and corrupt conduct constitutes a serious offence with criminal and civil penalties and exposes M1M to significant reputational damage.

1. Purpose and Application of this Policy

1.1 This ABC Policy applies to all of M1M's officers and employees and we require that all consultants, secondees, contractors, agents and intermediaries representing M1M also comply with it (all the foregoing collectively M1M Personnel).

1.2 M1M Personnel must:

- (a) not engage in bribery or corrupt conduct of any kind nor conceal such conduct;
- (b) comply with all laws and regulations prohibiting bribery and corrupt conduct applicable to M1M and its operations;
- (c) comply with this ABC Policy and all the procedures M1M adopts to prevent bribery or corrupt conduct; and
- (d) report any concern or suspected or potential breach of this ABC Policy immediately.

1.3 This ABC Policy is available in the "Corporate Governance" section of M1M's website.

2. What is bribery and corruption

2.1 Bribery and corruption involve offering, promising or giving a benefit, a favour, a gift or anything of value with the intention of unduly influencing the behaviour of a person or a public official in the performance of their duty, in order to obtain or retain business or some other improper advantage. It is important to note that merely offering a bribe is generally enough to constitute the offence (regardless of whether the improper advantage is in fact obtained) and that relevant laws apply to bribery of public officials but also bribery in a commercial context.

2.2 Annexure A contains examples of "red flags" indicating that further inquiry is appropriate to verify that there are no potential bribery or corruption issues.

2.3 What behaviour is prohibited by the ABC Policy

The following are prohibited behaviours under the ABC Policy.

- (a) Offering, paying or receiving bribes to or from public officials.

Offering, making or receiving a bribe to or from a public official is strictly prohibited.

Australia is a signatory to the OECD Convention on Combating Bribery of Foreign Public Officials in International Business Transactions and has enacted legislation prohibiting the offering, paying, causing or promising of anything of value to both foreign and domestic public officials. The legislation enables Australian regulators to prosecute its citizens and corporations for the bribery of public officials in Australia and other countries.

Contravention of public sector anti-bribery and corruption laws of Australia and of other countries has serious criminal and civil consequences, such as imprisonment or fines.

- (b) Offering, paying or receiving kick-backs or secret commissions and money laundering.

Offering, making or receiving a 'kick-back' or a secret commission as an inducement or reward for doing or not doing something, or showing or not showing favour or disfavour to any person in relation to business matters, is also prohibited. Secret commissions typically arise where a person or entity offers or gives a commission to an agent or representative of another person which is not disclosed by that agent or representative to their principal. Such a payment is generally made as an inducement to influence the conduct of the principal's business.

Money laundering is also prohibited. Money laundering is the process by which a person or entity conceals the existence of an illegal source of income and then disguises that income to make it appear legitimate.

- (c) Private sector bribery or corruption.

Contravention of Australian state and territory anti-bribery and corruption laws, and of laws of other countries dealing with private sector bribery or corruption, also has serious criminal and civil consequences, such as imprisonment or fines, and is strictly prohibited.

- (d) Offering or accepting gifts and hospitality beyond acceptable business courtesies.

The practice of accepting or offering gifts, entertainment or hospitality varies between countries, regions and industries. What may be normal and acceptable in one may not be in another. It is a matter to be approached conservatively and with care by M1M Personnel and each M1M company.

Offering, making or receiving a gift, business courtesy or hospitality can create an obligation or be construed or used by others to allege favouritism, discrimination, collusion or similarly unacceptable practices. M1M Personnel must not give, seek or accept in connection with M1M's business any gifts, meals, refreshments and entertainment which go beyond common courtesies associated with the ordinary and proper course of business. M1M Personnel must avoid everything that could reasonably be construed as a bribe or an improper inducement.

Any gift, entertainment or other personal favour or assistance given or received which has a value in excess of the amount determined from time to time for each jurisdiction in which M1M operates and available from the Company Secretary must be approved in advance by the Company Secretary and entered into the gifts and entertainment register maintained by the Company Secretary (Gifts and Entertainment Register).

- (e) The practice of accepting or offering gifts, entertainment or hospitality varies between countries, regions and industries. What may be normal and acceptable in one may not be in another. It is a matter to be approached conservatively and with care by M1M Personnel and each M1M company.
- (f) Offering, making or receiving a gift, business courtesy or hospitality can create an obligation or be construed or used by others to allege favouritism, discrimination, collusion or similarly unacceptable practices. M1M Personnel must not give, seek or accept in connection with M1M's business any gifts, meals, refreshments and entertainment which go beyond common courtesies associated with the ordinary and proper course of business. M1M Personnel must avoid everything that could reasonably be construed as a bribe or an improper inducement.
- (g) Any gift, entertainment or other personal favour or assistance given or received which has a value in excess of the amount determined from time to time for each jurisdiction in which M1M operates and available from the Company Secretary must be approved in advance by the Company Secretary and entered into the Gifts and Entertainment Register.

- (i) Political donations

All dealings with politicians and government officers which relate to M1M and its business activities must be conducted at arm's length and with the utmost professionalism to avoid any perception of attempting to gain an advantage.

Any political donations must be authorised in advance by the Board and comply with the local law and government policies of the jurisdiction where the donation is made. They must also be recorded accurately in M1M's accounts.

Attendance at political gatherings, meetings and functions in a professional capacity is permitted where there is a legitimate business purpose. Records of attendance (and the cost of attendance) must be declared in the Gifts and Entertainment Register.

- (ii) Charitable donations

M1M may make charitable donations that are legal and ethical under local laws and practices. In some countries, charities can be used as a screen for illegal bribes. Accordingly, care must be taken to ensure that the charity or cause is legitimate.

A charitable donation may only be offered or made in accordance with the relevant corporate policy on charitable donations, and with the prior approval of the Company Secretary. The Company

Secretary may put in place standing authorities for managers to make donations to specified levels provided that these are consistent with delegated authorities, are reviewed annually, and are made available to M1M's auditors.

Charitable donations to any organisation in aggregate in excess of the amount determined from time to time for each jurisdiction in which M1M operates and available from the Company Secretary require the prior approval of the Board.

(h) Improper dealing in relation to accounting records

Intentionally or recklessly making, altering, destroying, concealing or doing something with an accounting document with the intention of concealing or disguising the receiving or giving of a bribe or any corrupt activity is strictly prohibited and is a criminal offence under Australian law.

3. Procedure in implementing and monitoring compliance

3.1 Education and training

M1M will provide education and training to officers and relevant M1M Personnel in relation to the issue of bribery and corruption and this ABC Policy. The purpose of the education and training will be to assist officers and those M1M Personnel in their understanding of what conduct is prohibited and unlawful and how to recognise and manage instances of bribery or corruption.

3.2 Dealing with third parties

It is important that any M1M company proposing to engage a third party implements appropriate controls to ensure that the actions of the third party will not involve any bribery or corrupt conduct. For these purposes, a "third party" may include actual or potential agents, consultants, advisers, distributors, suppliers, purchasers or contractors.

The Company Secretary is responsible for determining which third parties require specific anti-bribery controls, and where they do the nature of those controls. The Company Secretary will make that determination having regard to this policy, the nature and location of the work being undertaken by those third parties, and any guidelines issued by M1M from time to time. Additionally, if any "red flags" exist in relation to a third party then the proposed dealing must be referred to the Company Secretary to determine relevant anti-bribery controls even where that third party would not otherwise fall into a category in respect of which controls are normally required.

Any required scrutiny will be to a level necessary for M1M to reach a reasonable level of confidence that it is engaged in a normal, legitimate business transaction. Ultimately M1M needs to be sure that, if it is required to defend its actions before a judge or prosecutor, it is confident that it will be able to defend its dealings as being with a bona fide third party. Consequently, the nature of the controls the Company Secretary may prescribe will vary, and could include any one or more of the following:

- (a) initial screening of third parties to determine whether the level of risk in relation to them puts them "in scope" for additional inquiry. That assessment may involve third parties being assessed against specified risk factors such as geographic location, industry, background and identity, connection with government officials or entities, their compensation structure and how their selection came about;

- (b) mandating specified due diligence inquiries, including where necessary administering questionnaires, and including satisfactory resolution of all “red flags”;
- (c) obtaining external due diligence reports from reputable providers;
- (d) obtaining internal and external legal advice on the proposed dealing; and
- (e) requiring approval processes and appropriate pre and post approval risk mitigation and monitoring including:
  - (i) verification of the providence of money coming in;
  - (ii) controls to ensure proper application of money going out;
  - (iii) where there is payment to a government or government entity, controls to ensure and verify that the payment is being made into the State treasury and is subject to appropriate transparency, audit and where appropriate parliamentary oversight;
  - (iv) appropriate transparency by M1M regarding the dealing;
  - (v) in appropriate cases and at appropriate junctures audit of compliance with this ABC Policy, additional or verifying due diligence and periodic compliance certifications; and
  - (vi) confirmation that all M1M payments will be made in accordance with approved M1M processes, will be subject to usual M1M audit processes and, where appropriate, will be reflected in M1M’s accounts in the usual way.

3.3 Acquisitions and joint ventures

(a) Acquisitions

Unless the Company Secretary determines otherwise (which he or she may do for instance in the case of an acquisition in Australia of an interest in a mining venture from a major reputable mining company), prior to any acquisition of a new company or business (including of an interest in a joint venture), anti-bribery due diligence must be undertaken, and a due diligence report completed to a level of detail and of a standard required by the Company Secretary. Detailed written records of those investigations must be retained.

Any “red flags” identified during the due diligence process must be raised with the Company Secretary and resolved to the Company Secretary’s satisfaction. Acquisition and joint venture arrangements must not be entered into until the issues identified during due diligence have been satisfactorily resolved.

All acquisition agreements to which M1M is a party must include all M1M’s standard anti-bribery and corruption and other provisions addressing the subject matter of this ABC Policy (as approved by the Company Secretary).

(b) Joint ventures

Where M1M effectively controls a joint venture, the joint venture must comply with this policy.

Where M1M does not have effective control of the joint venture, M1M must exercise its influence to assist the joint venture to avoid improper conduct.

3.4 Certain Transactions always require prior Board approval

Certain transactions are by their nature inherently risky and must always be elevated to the Board for prior approval before being entered into.

The following transactions fall into that category (and are additional to transactions identified elsewhere in this ABC policy as requiring prior Board approval):

- (a) any consultancy role where the consultant is unusually close to a Government or any Government Minister or official (notwithstanding that there may be no official or commercial ties between those parties);
- (b) engagement of a party to help with commercial negotiation of a contract with a Government or government entity outside Australia (other than in a purely professional capacity such as in the capacity of a tax or legal adviser);
- (c) any transaction outside Australia, or without limitation not in the ordinary course in Australia, where a counterparty has a current or historical political connection (whether through family, business relationships, current or past government roles or appointments, current or historical holding of an elected position or otherwise); and
- (d) any transaction where elements of the transaction have no apparent justifying commercial rationale (for instance where a shell company or party that apparently brings nothing of evident value to the transaction is nonetheless the recipient of a significant payment, or where money or money's worth is passing to a party as an apparent windfall or in payment for an asset the recipient apparently received for free).

3.5 Investigations and audits

Any potential breaches of this ABC Policy will be properly recorded, investigated and dealt with.

This ABC policy and related procedures will additionally be subject to periodic audit and review. Periodic risk assessments will also be undertaken to identify bribery and corruption risk. The objective of any such audit or assessment is to determine whether breaches of the policy were properly recorded, investigated and dealt with and the policy or any of the procedures contained within it need to be updated as a result of any breaches.

4. Responsibilities

4.1 M1M Personnel are expected to ensure that they understand the ABC Policy and the impact this has on their areas of responsibility. In particular, M1M Personnel must:

- (a) endeavour to comply with the terms of the ABC Policy;

- (b) undertake all requisite training provided in relation to the laws and regulations relating to bribery and corruption and the ABC Policy; and
- (c) immediately report any concern, suspected or potential breaches of the ABC Policy to either:
  - (i) the Managing Director/CEO;
  - (ii) the Company Secretary; or
  - (iii) a Whistleblower Protection Officer in accordance with M1M's Whistleblower Protection Policy, which is available in the Corporate Governance section of M1M's website.

4.2 All material breaches of the ABC Policy must, where appropriate, be reported immediately to the Board.

5. Breach of Policy

- 5.1 Any suspected breaches of the ABC Policy will be thoroughly investigated. Any material breaches of the ABC Policy will also be reported to the Board.
- 5.2 In circumstances where a breach of the ABC Policy is established, appropriate disciplinary and remedial actions will be taken.
- 5.3 M1M reserves the right to inform the appropriate authorities where it is considered that there has been criminal activity or an apparent breach of any law.

6. Review and changes to this policy

- 6.1 The Board, in conjunction with the Audit and Risk Committee, will review the ABC Policy periodically to ensure that it is operating effectively and whether any changes are required.
- 6.2 The Board may change this policy from time to time by resolution.

Annexure A – Potential Risk Scenario: “Red Flags”

The following is a list of bribery and corruption “red flags” that may arise during the course of working for or providing services to M1M. The list is for illustration purposes only and is not intended to be exhaustive.

If you encounter any of the following, you must report them promptly in accordance with section 4 of the ABC Policy.

- Y. A third party is reluctant to accept M1M’s standard anti-bribery and corruption contractual provisions or is reluctant to provide an anti-bribery and corruption certification.
- Z. You notice that M1M has been invoiced for a commission or fee payment that appears large given the service stated to have been provided.
- AA. A third party requests or requires the use of an agent, intermediary, consultant, distributor or supplier that is not typically used by or known to the M1M company concerned.

PART 10 - WHISTLEBLOWER POLICY

This Whistleblower Policy supports M1M's Corporate Values Statement and operates in conjunction with the law and M1M's policies which foster a culture of fairness and integrity.

1. Purpose of this policy

- 1.1 M1M and its subsidiaries (collectively) are committed to fostering a culture of compliance, ethical behaviour and good corporate governance. M1M values fairness, respect and integrity and wishes to encourage a culture where any officer, employee or contractor can come forward and speak up about potential misconduct concerns without suffering detriment because of speaking up. This policy has been adopted to provide a safe and confidential environment for people to raise any such concerns without fear of reprisal.
- 1.2 The purpose of the Whistleblower Policy is to:
- (a) encourage disclosers to report an issue if they reasonably believe someone has engaged in serious wrongdoing;
  - (b) outline how M1M will deal with whistleblowing reports; and
  - (c) set out the avenues available to disclosures to report serious wrongdoing to M1M
- 1.3 By implementing this Policy, M1M would like to make clear that misconduct or any improper action by company officers, employees, contractors (including contractor employees), volunteers and suppliers (including supplier employees) of M1M and/or Affiliates will not be tolerated.
- 1.4 This policy also protects those who are entitled to whistleblower protection under the Australian Whistleblower laws (see section 7 of this policy).

2. Who this Policy applies to?

- 2.1 This policy applies to anyone who discloses misconduct or an improper state of affairs or circumstances (discloser) warranting protection under Australian Whistleblower laws, and anyone who interacts or engages with a discloser, including, persons who accept and manage protected disclosures in M1M.
- 2.2 To qualify for protection, a discloser must be someone who is, or has been, any of the following with respect to all entities within M1M:
- (a) Employees;
  - (b) Directors;
  - (c) Officers;
  - (d) Contractors (including employees of contractors);
  - (e) Suppliers (including employees of suppliers);
  - (f) Associates;

- (g) Consultants; and
- (h) Relatives, dependents, spouses, or dependents of a spouse of any of the above.

2.3 While every worker is required to comply with this Policy, this Policy is not incorporated as a term of any employment contract or contract for services and does not create any rights enforceable by a worker against M1M. To the extent that there is an inconsistency between the law and this Policy, the law will prevail.

---

3. Protected disclosures

3.1 Under the Whistleblower Laws, disclosers will receive protection if the matter relates to a “protected disclosure.”

3.2 What is a Protected Disclosure?

“Protected disclosures” broadly include any matter that a discloser has reasonable grounds to believe is misconduct, or an improper state of affairs or circumstances. For example, the disclosure could include information about:

- (a) Breach of laws and regulations including the Corporations Act 2001 (Corporations Act);
- (b) Breach of the Company’s Code of Conduct or Policies, standards or codes;
- (c) unlawful, corrupt or irregular use of company funds or practices;
- (d) illegal activities (including theft, dealing in or use of illicit drugs, violence or threatened violence and criminal damage against property);
- (e) improper or misleading accounting or financial reporting practices;
- (f) Criminal activity, bribery or corruption;
- (g) unethical and/or dishonest behaviour;
- (h) any behaviour that poses a serious risk to the health and safety of any person at the workplace;
- (i) any behaviour that poses a serious risk to the environment or aboriginal heritage;
- (j) behaviour which causes a serious risk to public health or public safety;
- (k) Dishonest or unethical behaviour;
- (l) Conflicts of interest;
- (m) Anti-competitive behaviour;
- (n) Harassment, victimisation or bullying;
- (o) Sexual harassment;
- (p) Financial fraud or mismanagement;

- (q) Unauthorised use of the Company’s confidential information;
- (r) Conduct likely to damage the Company’s financial position or reputation;
- (s) any other conduct which may cause loss to M1M or be otherwise detrimental to the interests of M1M;
- (t) Deliberate concealment of the above; or
- (u) engaging in or threatening to engage in detrimental conduct against a person who has made a disclosure or is believed or suspected to have made, or be planning to make, a disclosure.

3.3 What is not a Protected Disclosure?

- (a) “Personal workplace grievances” means a grievance about any matter in relation to the discloser’s employment, or former employment, having (or tending to have) implications for the discloser personally. This includes:
  - (i) an interpersonal conflict between the discloser and another employee;
  - (ii) a decision relating to the engagement, transfer or promotion of the discloser;
  - (iii) a decision relating to the terms and conditions of engagement of the discloser; or
  - (iv) a decision to suspend or terminate the engagement of the discloser, or otherwise to discipline the discloser.
- (b) Personal workplace grievances are not protected disclosures and should be reported and addressed in accordance with M1M relevant policies, procedures, documents and agreements

3.4 Reasonable grounds

- (a) Protected disclosures must be made on “reasonable grounds”. Reasonable grounds means that a person in your position, acting reasonably, would also suspect that the information demonstrates misconduct or an improper state of affairs or circumstances within M1M.
- (b) The protected disclosure does not ultimately have to be true to constitute a disclosure made on reasonable grounds. Disclosers can still qualify for protection even if the disclosure turns out to be untrue.

4. Who can disclosures be made to?

4.1 Internal Reporting

- (a) M1M encourages anyone wishing to make a disclosure to first report any matters of concern to one of the M1M “eligible recipients”.
- (b) M1M’s eligible recipients are:

- (i) Bob Besley
  - (ii) Rebecca Jackson
- (c) M1M's preference is for disclosures to be reported internally in the first instance. However, M1M recognises that it may not always be appropriate to do so. Disclosers will still qualify for Whistleblower protections if a protected disclosure is made to a legal practitioner, an authorised regulatory body or external third party, as explained below.

4.2 National Regulatory Bodies

- (a) Where it is not appropriate to make an internal disclosure, or where the person making a report does not feel comfortable making an internal report, or where a discloser has made an internal report but no action has been taken within a reasonable time, protected disclosures may be made to regulatory bodies or competent authorities, such as but not limited to:
- (i) Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC);
  - (ii) Australian Prudential Regulation Authority (APRA);
  - (iii) The Australia Taxation Commissioner;
  - (iv) The Australian Federal Police (AFP);
  - (v) A lawyer to obtain advice about the disclosure and the associated implications; and
  - (vi) The competent authority in the countries where M1M operates, including criminal or administrative complaint.

4.3 Disclosures to Parliamentarians, Judges and Journalists

- (a) It is recognised that if conduct in connection with M1M is of particular gravity and urgency, disclosure to a member of parliament, a Judge or to a journalist may be justified.
- (b) A "public interest disclosure" may be made to a member of parliament, a Judge or to a journalist where:
- (i) A disclosure has been made to a regulatory body;
  - (ii) 90 days has passed since the disclosure was made;
  - (iii) There are reasonable grounds to believe that no action is being, or has been taken, to address the matters raised;
  - (iv) The discloser has informed the regulatory body that they intend to make a public interest disclosure; and
  - (v) The extent of the information disclosed is no greater than necessary to inform the recipient of the misconduct or improper state of affairs to which the first disclosure related.

- (c) An “emergency disclosure” may be made to a member of parliament, a Judge or to a journalist where:
  - (i) A disclosure has been made to a regulatory body;
  - (ii) There is an imminent risk of serious harm or danger to public health or safety, or to the financial system, if the information is not acted on immediately;
  - (iii) The discloser has informed the regulatory body that they intend to make an emergency disclosure; and

5. How to make a disclosure?

- 5.1 If a person has reasonable grounds to believe that conduct constituting misconduct or an improper state of affairs or circumstances exists in connection with M1M, M1M strongly encourages that person to report their concerns, either verbally or in writing, to an “eligible recipient” within M1M or as otherwise specified under Section 4 of this Policy.
- 5.2 M1M encourages disclosers to provide their name when making a disclosure in order to facilitate appropriate follow up questions and assist with the investigation process. However, a discloser can report a protected disclosure anonymously and still qualify for Whistleblower protections. A discloser can choose to remain anonymous while making a disclosure, during an investigation and after the investigation is finalized.
- 5.3 To maintain confidentiality, disclosers should not talk with other workers, clients or suppliers, extended family or friends, or the media (except in the circumstances specified under Section 4.3) about any protected disclosure, other than on a ‘need to know’ basis or if the eligible recipient has directed or approved the disclosure on behalf of M1M
- 5.4 Breaching the confidentiality of a current disclosure, complaint or investigation or inappropriately disclosing personal information obtained in the course of a disclosure, complaint or investigation is a serious breach of this policy and may lead to formal disciplinary action.
- 5.5 Those directly involved in a protected disclosure (i.e. discloser and respondent) are entitled to seek personal and professional support or advice and seeking of such support or advice (for example, from someone who has knowledge of the protected disclosure) is not considered a breach of confidentiality.

6. Handling and investigating disclosures

- 6.1 When M1M receives a disclosure, we will assess the disclosure to determine whether it qualifies for protection under the Whistleblower laws and whether a formal investigation is warranted.

- 6.2 M1M's approach for investigating disclosures will depend on each individual circumstance and the nature of allegations. The investigation will be conducted by a suitably qualified person or organisation appointed by Chair of the Board.
- 6.3 The usual process for investigating disclosures is set out below. However, where it is considered appropriate to do so, M1M may alter the process and will advise the relevant parties of the revised process.
- 6.4 Generally, the investigation process will include the following steps:
- (a) obtain all relevant information from the discloser and keep them informed of the process subject to legal constraints;
  - (b) advise the person who is the subject of the disclosure about the disclosure and allegation(s);
  - (c) provide the person who is the subject of the disclosure with an opportunity to respond to the allegation(s);
  - (d) interview any relevant witnesses and collect evidence;
  - (e) if necessary, seek further information from the person who is the subject of the protected disclosure, the discloser and/or witnesses;
  - (f) assess the evidence and form a view about whether the allegations are substantiated; and
  - (g) inform the discloser and person who is the subject of the disclosure of the investigation findings.
- 6.5 The Whistleblower Protection Officer (who is the Company Secretary) must provide the Board information on all active whistleblower matters at the next board meeting.
